

Red Door Advises JIT-EX on Its Sale to Alabama Motor Express

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (July 27, 2026) – Red Door Strategic Advisory (“Red Door”) recently advised JIT-EX, LLC (“JIT-EX” or the “Company”), a Memphis, Tennessee-based, high-service, asset-based trucking provider, on its sale to Alabama Motor Express (“AMX”), an Ashford, Alabama-based trucking, logistics and drayage company.

Founded in 2001, JIT-EX has grown into one of the most respected trucking providers in the Mid-South, offering local, dedicated, regional, over-the-road and other value-added transportation services, including container and cross-docking solutions. The Company operates from its Memphis, Tennessee headquarters and Nashville, Tennessee terminal, providing industry-leading service to customers with a fleet of more than 225 tractors and 1,300 trailers. Under the leadership of co-owners Bobby Watts and Robby Harris, the Company established a strong trajectory of growth, built an impressive team and continues to deliver industry-leading, on-time service.

“This transaction marks a pivotal moment for JIT-EX. Red Door executed a tailored and highly thoughtful process that was instrumental in identifying a partner aligned with our culture, values, and long-term vision. This collaboration positions our team, customers and drivers for continued success as part of the AMX family.”

— BOBBY WATTS, CO-OWNER, JIT-EX

JIT-EX’s sale to AMX represents a significant milestone in the Company’s growth strategy. The combination brings together two respected, family-oriented trucking organizations and expands AMX’s service capabilities and geographic footprint across the Southeast and beyond. JIT-EX will continue to operate from its Memphis and Nashville terminals, preserving its customer-first culture and high standards of service.
